REMINDER:

An examination misconduct is any attempt to give or obtain assistance in a formal academic exercise (for example: an examination) without due knowledge or permission of the organizer, which may have an unfair advantage in promoting one's academic performance or standing.

Where the alleged act is stated as a strict liability offense, it need not be proven that the student has the intention (mens rea) to commit the offence. It is sufficient to adduce that the offences had occurred at the material time.

All belongings of the candidate need to be placed in the envelope provided and the envelope is placed under the candidate's seat.

Ref: Item 3.3 - Examination Rules and Regulation (Examination Misconduct) - University Rules and Regulation Handbook 14th Edition

A candidate may be said to have committed a breach of the examination rules or regulations if he has committed any of these actions:

- 3.3.1 Possessing any unauthorized materials or devices in or within the vicinity of the examination venue. These unauthorized materials or devices may include, but not limited to:
 - 3.3.1.1 A bag, writing paper, books, manuscript or other than the specified material;
 - 3.3.1.2 A mobile telephone or other communication devices;
 - 3.3.1.3 Any type of playback devices, digital media player, hand-held computer, blue-tooth enabled electronic devices and smartwatch
 - 3.3.1.4 Any type of programmable calculators or devices with store memory capability. If permitted to be used, students are to clear the memories of programmable calculators or devices and remove them from calculator cases before taking them into the examination venue
 - 3.3.1.5 Written or printed notes of any kind or size, regardless of its relevancy to the examination effected
 - 3.3.1.6 Writing on any part of the body, (not being tattoo required by culture) or items of clothing;
 - 3.3.1.7 Writing on instruments or stationeries
- 3.3.2 Giving or receiving or possessing any material, regardless of its relevancy to the examination questions during the conduct of examination in or outside the examination venue.
- 3.3.3 Referring and using any prohibited reference materials in or outside the examination venue during the examination.
- 3.3.4 Communicating to other candidates in or outside the examination venue when the examination is still in session.
- 3.3.5 Soliciting, obtaining, possessing, or distributing to another person an examination document prior to or subsequent to the administration of the examination in or outside the examination venue.
- 3.3.6 Altering or changing an examination or comparable document so as to mislead other users or the reader.
- 3.3.7 Substituting for, arranging for substitution by another student, or otherwise representing oneself as another person during an examination session or comparable circumstances.
- 3.3.8 The above list is not exhaustive and other instances of academic offence may occur. Their identification will require prudent review by the Academic Disciplinary Committee. The above definition and examples apply to all schools and institutes in Universiti Kuala Lumpur.

PENALTY:

If a student commits examination misconduct, the student can be imposed with any of the following penalties:

- (a) Given 'F' grade for that particular subject and suspension from the University for one semester; or
- (b) Expulsion from the University
